The Mission of the Church of the Holy Trinity is to be a visible and vibrant body of Christ open and welcoming to all. We are committed by our faith in God to nurture each other on our lifelong journey of discernment, and to be dedicated to healing, witness and service so that all may discover a deeper relationship with God through Christ Jesus. Amen.

When the people saw that Moses delayed to come down from the mountain, the people gathered around Aaron, and said to him, "Come, make gods for us, who shall go before us; as for this Moses, the man who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him." Aaron said to them, "Take off the gold rings that are on the ears of your wives, your sons, and your daughters, and bring them to me." So all the people took off the gold rings from their ears, and brought them to Aaron. He took the gold from them, formed it in a mold, and cast an image of a calf; and they said, "These are your gods, O Israel, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt!" When Aaron saw this, he built an altar before it; and Aaron made proclamation and said, "Tomorrow shall be a festival to the Lord." They rose early the next day, and offered burnt offerings and brought sacrifices of well-being; and the people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to revel. The Lord said to Moses, "Go down at once! Your people, whom you brought up out of the land of Egypt, have acted perversely; they have been quick to turn aside from the way that I commanded them; they have cast for themselves an image of a calf, and have worshiped it and sacrificed to it, and said, 'These are your gods, O Israel, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt!'" The Lord said to Moses, "I have seen this people, how stiff-necked they are. Now let me alone, so that my wrath may burn hot against them and I may consume them; and of you I will make a great nation." But Moses implored the Lord his God, and said, "O Lord, why does your wrath burn hot against your people, whom you brought out of the land of Egypt with great power and with a mighty hand? Why should the Egyptians say, 'It was with evil intent that he brought them out to kill them in the mountains, and to consume them from the face of the earth'? Turn from your fierce wrath; change your mind and do not bring disaster on your people. Remember Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, your servants, how you swore to them by your own self, saying to them, 'I will multiply your descendants like the stars of heaven, and all this land that I have promised I will give to your descendants, and they shall inherit it forever.'" And the Lord changed his mind about the disaster that he planned to bring on his people.

FROM THE PSALTER

Psalm 106:1-6, 19-23

Let us read the Psalm in unison.

- | | |
|---|---|
| 1 Hallelujah!
Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good, *
for his mercy endures for ever. 2 Who can declare the mighty acts of the Lord * or show forth all his praise? 3 Happy are those who act with justice * and always do what is right! 4 Remember me, O Lord, with the favor you have for your people, * and visit me with your saving help; 5 That I may see the prosperity of your elect and be glad with the gladness of your people, * that I may glory with your inheritance. 6 We have sinned as our forebears did; *
we have done wrong and dealt wickedly. | 19 Israel made a bull-calf at Horeb *
and worshiped a molten image; 20 And so they exchanged their Glory * for the image of an ox that feeds on grass. 21 They forgot God their Savior, * who had done great things in Egypt, 22 Wonderful deeds in the land of Ham, * and fearful things at the Red Sea. 23 So he would have destroyed them, had not Moses his chosen stood before him in the breach, *
to turn away his wrath from consuming them. |

FROM THE EPISTLES

Philippians 4: 1-13

Therefore, my brothers and sisters, whom I love and long for, my joy and crown, stand firm in the Lord in this way, my beloved. I urge Euodia and I urge Syntyche to be of the same mind in the Lord. Yes, and I ask you also, my loyal companion, help these women, for they have struggled beside me in the work of the gospel, together with Clement and the rest of my co-workers, whose names are in the book of life.

Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, Rejoice. Let your gentleness be known to everyone. The Lord is near. Do not worry about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus. Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honourable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is pleasing, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. Keep on doing the things that you have learned and received and heard and seen in me, and the God of peace will be with you. I rejoice in the Lord greatly that now at last you have revived your concern for me; indeed, you were concerned for me, but had no opportunity to show it. Not that I am referring to being in need; for I have learned to be content with whatever I have. I know what it is to have little, and I know what it is to have plenty. In any and all circumstances I have learned the secret of being well-fed and of going hungry, of having plenty and of being in need. I can do all things through him who strengthens me.

Reader: Hear what the Holy Spirit is saying to God's people.

People: Thanks be to God.

THE HOLY GOSPEL

Matthew 22: 1-14

Celebrant: The Holy Gospel of Our Lord Jesus Christ According to Matthew.

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Once more Jesus spoke to the people in parables, saying: "The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who gave a wedding banquet for his son. He sent his slaves to call those who had been invited to the wedding banquet, but they would not come. Again he sent other slaves, saying, 'Tell those who have been invited: Look, I have prepared my dinner, my oxen and my fat calves have been slaughtered, and everything is ready; come to the wedding banquet.' But they made light of it and went away, one to his farm, another to his business, while the rest seized his slaves, mistreated them, and killed them. The king was enraged. He sent his troops, destroyed those murderers, and burned their city. Then he said to his slaves, 'The wedding is ready, but those invited were not worthy. Go therefore into the main streets, and invite everyone you find to the wedding banquet.' Those slaves went out into the streets and gathered all whom they found, both good and bad; so the wedding hall was filled with guests. "But when the king came in to see the guests, he noticed a man there who was not wearing a wedding robe, and he said to him, 'Friend, how did you get in here without a wedding robe?' And he was speechless. Then the king said to the attendants, 'Bind him hand and foot, and throw him into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.' For many are called, but few are chosen."

People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

THE HOMILY

The Rev. Keith A. Marsh

NICENE CREED

We believe in one God,

the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,

the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation

he came down from heaven,
was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and became truly human.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven

and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father,
who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

COMMISSIONING THE RECTOR SEARCH COMMITTEE

PRESENTATION OF THE COMMITTEE

Celebrant: Beloved in Christ, our parish is entering a time of prayerful discernment as we seek a new rector. The calling of a rector is not simply an administrative matter, but a spiritual undertaking in which we seek to understand where the Holy Spirit is leading this congregation.

Those who have been appointed to serve on the Rector Search Committee have accepted a responsibility on behalf of the whole parish. They will listen, pray, ask questions, and seek to discern the person who may be called to serve among us.

I ask the members of the committee to please stand.

EXAMINATION OF THE COMMITTEE

Celebrant: Do you, as members of this Rector Search Committee, commit yourselves to the work of prayerful discernment, seeking the guidance of the Holy Spirit as you undertake this responsibility?

Committee: We do.

Celebrant: Will you listen carefully and respectfully to the hopes, concerns, and wisdom of this congregation and of the wider Church?

Committee: We will.

Celebrant: Will you approach this work with openness, humility, honesty, and charity, remembering that Christ calls us to unity in the midst of our differences?

Committee: We will, with God's help.

Celebrant: Will you maintain appropriate confidentiality, act with integrity, and carry out your responsibilities faithfully and diligently?

Committee: We will, with God's help.

Celebrant: Will you pray for one another, for this parish, for the Diocese, and for the person whom God may be calling to serve as our rector?

Committee: We will, with God's help.

THE CONGREGATION'S COMMITMENT

Celebrant: People of God, will you support this committee with your prayers, your encouragement, your patience, and your trust as they undertake this important ministry?

Congregation: We will.

Celebrant: Will you participate faithfully in the life of this parish during this time of transition, offering your gifts and wisdom for the building up of Christ's Body?

Congregation: We will, with God's help.

THE COMMISSIONING PRAYER

Celebrant: Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, you have called us together as the Body of Christ and have promised that your Holy Spirit will guide us into all truth. We give you thanks for these members of our parish who have accepted the responsibility of serving on our Rector Search Committee.

Grant them wisdom to discern, patience to listen, courage to ask difficult questions, humility to recognize their own limitations, and compassion for all whom they encounter. Keep them faithful in prayer and steadfast in their service. Guard them from division, haste, and discouragement. Help them to seek not their own preferences, but the good of this parish and the mission of your Church.

Bless this congregation with unity, generosity, and a spirit of trust. Teach us to recognize your presence among us and to remain open to the new thing you are doing. Guide our Diocese and all who participate in this search. And, in your good time, lead us to the person whom you are calling to serve as our rector.

Through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

CHARGE To The COMMITTEE

Celebrant: The work before you is sacred work. You are not merely seeking someone to fill a position; you are helping this parish discern its future ministry and mission. There will be times of uncertainty, differing opinions, and difficult decisions. In those moments, remember that the Church belongs to Christ. Your task is to listen deeply, pray faithfully, and remain open to the movement of the Holy Spirit. May your service strengthen the life of this parish and help us discover together the gifts God is preparing to share with us.

COMMISSIONING

Celebrant: In the name of Holy Trinity parish and in the presence of God, I commission you to serve as members of the Rector Search Committee. May the Holy Spirit guide your discernment, may Christ strengthen you in your service, and may God the Father bless you with wisdom and peace. Go forth in faith, hope, and love. Amen.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING - ENRICHING OUR WORSHIP PRAYER 1

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Celebrant: It is truly right, and good and joyful, to give you thanks, all-holy God, source of life and fountain of mercy. You have filled us and all creation with your blessing and fed us with your constant love; you have redeemed us in Jesus Christ and knit us into one body. Through your Spirit you replenish us and call us to fullness of life.

Therefore, joining with Angels and Archangels and with the faithful of every generation, we lift our voices with all creation as we say:

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow-er and might, heaven and earth are full of your glo-ry. Ho - san - na in the high-est. Ho - san-na in the high - est. Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est, Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Celebrant: Blessed are you, gracious God, creator of the universe and giver of life. You formed us in your own image and called us to dwell in your infinite love. You gave the world into our care that we might be your faithful stewards and show forth your bountiful grace. But we failed to honor your image in one another and in ourselves; we would not see your goodness in the world around us; and so we violated your creation, abused one another, and rejected your love. Yet you never ceased to care for us, and prepared the way of salvation for all people.

Through Abraham and Sarah you called us into covenant with you. You delivered us from slavery, sustained us in the wilderness, and raised up prophets to renew your promise of salvation.

Then, in the fullness of time, you sent your eternal Word, made mortal flesh in Jesus. Born into the human family, and dwelling among us, he revealed your glory. Giving himself freely to death on the cross, he triumphed over evil opening the way of freedom and life.

On the night before he died for us, Our Savior Jesus Christ took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his friends, and said: "Take, eat: This is my Body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said: "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All: Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

Celebrant: Remembering his death and resurrection, we now present to you from your creation this bread and this wine. By your Holy Spirit may they be for us the Body and Blood of our Savior Jesus Christ. Grant that we who share these gifts may be filled with the Holy Spirit and live as Christ's Body in the world. Bring us into the everlasting heritage of your daughters and sons, that with all your saints, past, present, and yet to come, we may praise your Name forever.

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, to you be honor, glory, and praise, forever and ever.

People: Amen.

Celebrant: And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to pray,

People: Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy Kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

Celebrant: God of promise, you have prepared a banquet for us.

People: Happy are we who are called to the Supper of the Lamb.
